LIEUT. GILMER'S STATEMENT.

Rebuke the Men Who Have Polluted the State Politically.

A member of Company E, Lieutenant D. J. Gilmer, writes the following anent the recent newspaper reports that colored troops from Fort Macon were terrorizing the citizens in the vicinity of Beaufort and Morehead City.

Camp Russell, Fort Macon, Aug. 19.

Editor Evening Telegram:

Your issue of the 17th inst. contains an article coppied from the Newbern Journal regarding Russell's soldiers invading Morehead City and Beaufort on a Saturday night. That article contains not a word of truth. The one who whrote the article in question is no better than the man who beat his paralyzed his father because he would not do to suit him. It's hard for a man to forsake his family and home to face bullets for his nation's honor, and at the same time undergo the harsh and unjust newspaper attacks for political effects. If the vicious and vile white men have polluted the good name of North Carolina politically, why not rebuke them through the columns of the state press and let the poor helpless and innocent negro alone?

Not over fifteen soldiers are permitted to leave the island at once. There is no way for them to get away without permission, for the boat landing is guarded and the boatsman is not allowed to take a man on his boat without a permit signed by Col. Young.

Dave J. Gilmer,
First Lieutenant Co. E, N. C. V.

Shooting Scrape in Winston.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, Aug. 22—A shooting scrape occurred in this city yesterday morning, in which Margaret Pritchard was instantly killed by Charles Harmon, who was shooting at Early Palmer.

Palmer and Harmon had been scuffling, when Harmon became mad and shot at Palmer, missing him and killing the negro woman.

Harmon had not been captured up to the present writing. After the shooting Palmer got a shotgun and began looking for Harmon when he was arrested, tried and bound over to court in a bond of $25.

The coroner did not hold an inquest. He made an investigation and decided that the woman came to her death at the hands of Harmon; that the killing was accidental.

DEPUTY SHERIFF DISCHARGED.

Ed. Bryant, Coled, Turned Down by Sheriff Hewlett.

Ed. Bryant, the negro deputy sheriff, who was a few days ago bound over to the criminal court on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon upon Conductor Furch, of the street railway, was yesterday dismissed from his office of deputy by Sheriff Hewlett, who came up from his home in Masonboro township for that special purpose yesterday.

The sheriff said he had read in the Star of Wednesday morning an account of the disgraceful conduct of Bryant in wantonly creating a disturbance on a str et car and flourishing his pistol in the conductor's face Saturday night and concluded that he could not afford to keep such a man in the service. No successor has yet been appointed.

The discharged deputy says that he guesses he can live without the job and contends that he has done nothing for which he ashamed.—Wilmington Star, 19th.

Court Opened Today.

Guilford County Superior court was opened about noon today. Judge Timberlake, who is presiding, arrived at 11:55 and proceeded at once to the court house and began business. We failed to hear all of His Honor's charge to the grand jury, but from what we heard it was exhaustive. He enumerated almost every crime and misdemeanor in the catalogue and his charge was delivered in the plainest and most comprehensive language

Judge Timberlake comes to us with the reputation oi being a hustler in the despatch of business, and such services are needed in this county.

SAM LUCUS IS A MURDERER

The Negro Shot Last Saturday is Dead.

DIFFICULTY OVER FIVE CENTS.

The Result of The "Shooting Affray" Reported in This Paper on Last Saturday Afternoon.

In the history of Guilford county, on the criminal page, another murder has been recorded. As was reported in this paper Saturday afternoon, Henry Wood, colored, a driver for the Greensboro Ice and Coal Company, had an altercation with Sam Lucus, also colored, proprietor of the Piedmont House, over five cents worth of ice.

It is claimed the men met between the Piedmont House and West's bar, where they began a dispute and that Wood struck Lucus a blow with his fist and would have knocked him down but for the presence of some one who caught him. They were then separated and Wood resumed his rounds delivering ice. Lucus went back to his house, it is presumed to arm himself, and then went in search of Wood following him up South Elm street.

By this time Wood had reached the express office. He was in the express office when Lucus found him. Lucas entered the door and began firing. At the first shot Wood ran toward the back door and Lucus fired two more shots as he ran.

Wood escaped through the rear door and disappeared. Lucus returned to the front where he was met by Officer Weatherly who disarmed and arrested him. He offered no resistance and was placed in jail.

But to follow Wood: He ran across the back lot, scaled a high fence, ran through a corn field and fell in a yard on South Ashe street.

Physicians were summoned in a few minutes and he was removed to his home, where an examination was made and it was discovered that he was mortally wounded. The ball, which was from a 32 calibre pistol, entered the back four inches to the right of the spinal column, grazed the right kidney, passed through the liver and lodged against the seventh rib on the left side in front. He lingered until about 1 o'clock Sunday morning and expired.

THE MURDERER.

A Telegram man called on Sam Lucus, the murderer, in his prison cell this morning and found him sitting up reading a newspaper. When questioned about the deed his seemingly easy and comfortable frame of mind was instantly changed to one of nervousness and uneasiness.

In answer to questions he said he was drinking some but was not drunk. Said he now regretted what he had done, but that it was no more than any one else would have done under the circumstances. At the time of the shooting he did not think he had hurt Wood. He said further that of course he would rather die a natural death but supposed he would be hung. Said he was now in the hands, and as he termed it "at the mercy" of his lawyers. Said he would not plead guilty as he "did not see himself kill the negro."

The case will probably be tried this week as court is now in session. Here is a slight coincidence with the case of R. S. Ryan who was hung last December, both murders having been committed Saturday night before court on Monday. Lucus occupies the same cell in which Ryan was confined and spent the last two weeks of his life.

Lucus has not been a resident of Greensboro long, having removed here from Mt. Airy. It is reported that this is not his first shooting scrape.

SAGASTA'S CLAIM.

Commissioners Will Encounter Some Troublesome Questions.

Washington, Aug. 20—Premier Sagasta's claim, as sent forth in Madrid dispatches, that Spain will expect indemnity fo all governmenty property, buildings, barracks, fortifications, etc., in Cuba, Porto Rico and elsewhere, has excited much comment as showing the difficult questions to be treated by the military and peace commissions. In official quarters here there is no disposition to make a counter claim to Sagasta's proposition, for this will be done in due time before the commissions, and there is no purpose to outline the government's policy in advance. At the same time, leading officials express their individual opinion that Premier Sagasta's claim is very far fetched, as it is said to be the established rule of international law that all public property of a sovereign government passes to the conqueror when a change of territory occurs.

The rule is equally well established that private property undergoes no change. The question is somewhat complicated in the present case by the fact that Cuba and Porto Rico are not acquired by conquest, but rather by mutual agreement. In the case of Cuba the question is further complicated by the fact that the United States has not asserted a purpose to acquire or annex the territory, but merely to free it from the Spanish domination.

THE HOSPITAL TRAIN.

Passed Here Saturday Night on the Return Trip.

The hospital train which went South over the Southern a few days ago, passed through Saturday night on the return trip. The train was sent out by the city of Philadelphia to bring home from southern camps the fever stricken soldiers in the Pennsylvania regiments. This is the first train sent out by a city to bring home its sick men and the funds were raised by popular subscription. The train was thoroughly equipped and the sick were carried home in comfort. The train was composed of six hospital cars, in each of which were twelve cots; two Pullman and two baggage cars. The patients have been wasting with disease and looked thin and haggard, but the nurses and physicians were always on hand to do anything to add to their comfort.

In one of the baggage cars were four tanks of fresh milk and other provisions while the other was used as a kitchen.

The Pullman cars were for the use of the physicians and nurses.

Several people who were at the depot walked through the train while it stopped here.

Just Such Men.

It does the Observer good to see such nominations as that of John N. Wilson for the senate in Guilford. Such selections of candidates as this by the democratic party are what is going to save the state this year.—Charlotte Observer.

THE CONVENTION'S WORK.

The ticket nomination by the Guilford county democrats in session Saturday is one which every lover of good government can heartily support. It stands as follows:

For the Senate—John N. Wilson.

For the House—John C. Kennett and John C. Bunch.

For Sheriff—J. Henry Gilmer.

For Clerk Superior Court—John J. Nelson.

For Register of Deeds—A. G. Kirkman.

For County Treasurer - G. H. McKinney.

For Coroner—Dr. J. P. Turner.

For Surveyor—W. P. McLean.

For County Commissioners—W. C. Boren, W. H. Ragan, W. C. Michael.

There was a warm contest over the nomination for the clerkship between J. J. Nelson and G. A. Rankin, but as soon as the second ballot was taken and Mr. Nelson declared the nominee, Mr. Rankin sprang to his feet, and, true man and democrat that he is, moved that Mr. Nelson's nomination be made unanimous, which was done with a whoop. Rankin is made of the proper stuff, is yet a young man and the people will yet do him honor.

The names on ticket are well known to our people and need no introduction at our hands. They will be heard from in the campaign. Let every democrat do his duty by them.

CLAUDE DOCKERY'S ROT.

It has been charged that this cotton was sold at a sacrifice by Superintendent Smith, the persons making the charge intimating that it was done by him intentionally for the sake of improper personal gain. This charge is false, if not maliciously false. Your board investigated the matter when the charge was first made. The cotton was sold in the open with the fullest opportunity for competition by purchasers and was bid for by several buyers. It was purchased in different quantities by Messrs. E. B. Barbee & Co. and Johnson & Thomson, Raleigh; A. Borden, Goldsboro, and W. C. Hardison, Wadesboro. These gentlemen will furnish all the facts of this sale, if desired, by any who care to ascertain the truth. They are honorable men, business men of character, who would not lend themselves a party to any transaction for the purpose of robbing the state.

The above is an extract from the letter of Claudius Dockery in presenting the so-called report of the swapped off superintendent of the penitentiary. As to the charge of selling cotton for the sake of "improper personal gain," its falsity would have been proven in a more substantial manner by a sworn statement (as the law directs) from John R. Smith, of the whole transactiou, showing the amount sold, the price received and the disposition made of the money. And if "your board investigated the matter when the charge was first made" why did not the board give the "facts" to the public and stop the clamor?

And what interest can the public have in who purchased the cotton? The public presumes that the purchasers paid for it and were thereby relieved from any responsibility in the matter. "These gentlemen will furnish all the facts," etc. In the name of common sense does the fact that Barbee, Johnson, Borden, Hardison, Tom, Dick and Harry bought cotton from the penitentiary authorities make it in any sense their duty to make a penitentiary report? That these are honorable business men nobody has ever questioned; and because they are honorable men is no reason under the sun, moon or stars why the men on the other side are not equally dishonorable. And it is not likely that their books contain any record of what became of the money after it was paid to John R. Smith and his crowd.

SMITH'S REPORT.

The report of John R. Smith, which was printed in The Telegram in full on Saturday, is a report which does not report. It is a travesty and a farce As a report it is no better than Mewborne's letter to Chairman Simmons. It is mainly an attempt to throw the blame for any shortage which may hereafter be discovered, on the former superintendent, Mr. Leazar. It charges indiscriminate waste in the three months intervening between Mr. Leazar's report and the date on which Mr. Smith assumed control. It is really distressing to hear Mr. Smith tell of the way the plows and wagons were smashed up and scattered broadcast over the farms; and the horses were crippled, spavined, sore-backed, lame, halt and blind, and some of them had to be given away, actually given away, to avoid the painful duty of having them shot!

The document is an evader and a dodger. It does not, in any sense, satisfy the law. It is a feeble attempt to lift Smith and the administration out of the hole in which they have by their rascality and disregard for law placed themselves. It is not even dated! It is not even sworn to. It is incomplete in every respect. It would never have been written but for the demand of the people that a report be made. That demand will be kept up until a comprehensive report is made. The people will "take a look at the books." They will vote to be allowed that privilege this fall. They will not submit to being snubbed and trifled with.

It was learned yesterday that President Kilgo, of Trinity College, has gone to South Carolina to take some depositions that are to be used in the Clark-Kilgo trial on the 30th inst. This is probably the only affair of its kind in the state's history. The Board of Trustees of Trinity College, will try the issues.—Winston Sentinel.

And the state hardly has cause to be proud of the precedent. Probably no other state ever witnessed a similar spectacle. Probably no other college president was ever driven to the necessity of "taking depositions" in order to meet a series of similar charges of a similar nature and coming in the manner in which they did from a supreme court judge. But while the story is being written it is only fair to state that Judge Clark is also driven to the necessity of "taking depositions" in order to sustain his charges. To use a time-worn expression: "The woods are being burned and the ashes raked with a fine toothed comb" to secure evidence to prove charges made months ago.

Yesterday's (Sunday) Charlotte Observer was one of the very best issues of a newspaper ever worked from a press in North Carolina. But when it comes to printing a newspaper the Charlotte Observer is to the front every day in the week. Yesterday's issue was extra good.

There is food for thought in the incident which occurred in our county convention here Saturday. The escorting of Judge Bynum to the chair by Policeman Jordan was an extremely amusing incident to us; but it brought a Wilmington man to his feet in a little impromptu speech in which he contrasted the incident with what a similar attempt in his city would be, where the escort would have been a negro. The decency and respectability of Wilmington is stirred deeply over the wretched and humiliating government forced upon that city, and we should not forget our white brethren of the east, but work with the fixed determination that they shall be freed from the corrupt and disgraceful Russell administration.

Jennett is getting down to business as a cartoonist in the News and Observer. His work for yesterday's paper was very fine. He will make the News and Observer a double-winner in this campaign.

A Prophecy.

Before or during the first part of the session of the last legislature I wrote the Observer that if Senator Butler should repudiate his contract with Pritchard and defeat his re-election, his, Butler's, name would be "Dennis." Well, he didn't defeat him, but he tried. And what a lonesome man he has been in Washington ever since. Now I am going to prophesy again. I do so without authority from Mr. Butler. There is no discount on this gentleman's ability. He is a shrewd, sharp, able man. But here is the prophecy:

Senator Butler, before the expiration of his term of office, will be back in the democratic party. If this don't hit I make no charge. Would his old party forgive and receive him with open arms? I believe it would; because it has shown itself of a forgiving nature.

The resolutions at the Raleigh convention, set before all the prodigals an open door; and it is a door through which the senator may pass. As a friend wrote me the other day, "Strange things happen in this world." This may be one of them.—Trojan, in Charlotte Observer.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoe Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once." For sale by C. E. Wailing and Cussing.

In consenting to a termination of the war before a few more military positions were filled as political rewards, the president has caused a wailing and wasting of cuss words among some of the "faithful." All the sons of their fathers and fellows with a "pull" had not got in before the door closed.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Why Allow Your Child To Suffer?

Goldsboro, N. C. March 30, '98

Mrs. Joe Person:

Dear Madame, My two small children were completely covered in running sores from impure blood, for which I could find no remedy, until I got a bottle of your Remedy. In a few days they were free of fever, and were well by the time the bottle was empty. I gave it after meals in sweetened water, and they begged for it. Afterwards my little girl became restless at night, would scream as if in nightmare every little while until after 12 or 1 o'clock. I commenced giving her the Remedy on Thursday night and by Saturday night she was resting quietly. I shall continue to use it for my children.

Yours very truly,
Mrs. M. T. Witherington.

WILL NOT HAND OVER CUBA.

Blanco May Leave During the Conferences of the Commission.

Madrid, Aug. 20, 10 p. m.—A cabinet minister who was interviewed by a representative of the Associated Press this evening said it was certain that Captain General Blanco would not hand over Cuba to the Americans since he had expressed a desire not to do so. The minister pointed out that the evacuation of Cuba would occupy a long time and that the protocol stipulated no period for the evacution of the island, but only that the labors of the commission should begin within ten days after the signing of the protocol.

General Blanco, the minister said, could leave Cuba during the conferences of the commission, still retaining his offices. Blanco's attitude was a pacific one.

The same member of the cabinet said that the meeting of the cortes was not discussed at the council today, but that the members were agreed regarding the question.

The work of the peace commission, he asserted, would not commence until after the closing of the chambers.

About one month ago my child which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I decided to try it. I soon noticed a change for the better; by its continued use a complete cure was brought about and it is now perfectly healthy.—C. L. Boggs, Stumptown, Gilmer Co., W. Va. For sale by C. E. Holton.

The Carnival of Crime in Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 21—The carnival of crime inaugurated in Arkansas several weeks ago, continues without abatement. At Paragould, Henry L. Bramlet was osleep in his bed, when an unknown assassin crept up to his window and shot him, killing him instantly. There is no clue.

A cutting affray, in which two prominent farmers figure, is reported from Carroll county. R. C. Marsey accused another neighbor named Phillips of making derogatory remarks concerning him. The men fought with knives and Phillips was fatally stabbed.

The decomposed body of well dressed man was found near Blackville, in Conway county. The had was severed from the body. The body is unidentigep and there is no clue to the murderers.

Alvin Strong was found near Mount Pleasant suffering from a fractured skull, andied and died without gaining consciousness.

At Harrisburg two negroes fought over a woman and one is dead and the other injured.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervogs system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impuritie in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aidsdigestion, and is pronounced byt those who have tried it as the very bes blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it' Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at C, E. Holton's drug store.

A new remedy for sleeplessness has been discovered by a Boston physician, who says that acute insomnia may be cured by the practice of deep breathing. The sufferer is directed to draw into the lungs as much air as possible, and not to exhale it until obliged to—and then very slowly. "It is somewhat of a task when the night is oppressively warm," says the physician, but if persisted in is fairly sure to relieve that hyperaemia of the brain which everyday folk call wakefulness. The tricks of the sleepless to induce sleep are many, but none is found to be more immediately efficacious than this plan of forcing the lungs to take the burden off the brain and nerves."

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits.' Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

A ROMANCE OF THE WAR.

How One of the Rough Riders Found His Mother.

That truth is stranger than fiction is again proven by the curious story of how a trooper in Torrey's Wild Riders Regiment found his mother, after forty years, says a Jacksonville special to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat. The trooper, Tow Williams, Troop K, left last night for Fort Meade to see a mother whom he had thought dead for many years. She is now 84 years of age and she will see a boy she mourned for many years

Many years ago the family lived on the border. Indians made a raid and killed Williams' father. The mother, with heroic spirit, bravely fought off the Indians, killing several, when she was knocked down by the merciless blows of a tomahawk wielded by a red demon. Tom, then a youngster of 7 or 8, was taken with the band. He lived with them and was for a year or two subjected to the worst kind of treatment. He bears scars where slits were made and skin torn off by the inhuman redskins in their efforts to "harden" him. He also forgot the English language

One day the band he was with met defeat and he was rescued by the whites. It took several years to win him back to civilization. He was then a strong, healthy youth of 18 or 20. He took up the cowboy's pursuit, and lived in Wyoming. He enlisted under Col. Torrey and came here.

In some manner his strange story leaked out, and in some way his old mother, now living at Fort Meade, South Florence, 200 miles south of here, was informed of it. She communicated with friends here. Williams was informed of the fact that his mother still lived. In less than 24 hours he secured a furlough and last night he left to see his old mother. It was a queer story, and his comrades crowded to the depot to see him off and wish him all manner of good luck and good wishes. Williams is one of the best men in the troop, and Col. Torrey speaks highly of him, saying that he was a very quiet man, but with a courage and spirit that carried him through everything.

Another strange case came in this morning when a private in the Forty-ninth Iowa met his father here who had been missing for over ten years. The father left his western home suddenly, and this spring came to Jacksonville, purchasing a small business here. The soldier entered the store last night. The recognition was mutual. It was a strange meeting and an affecting one.

For many weeks prior to the surrender of Santiago there was in the Casino Espanol, where the Spanish officers and aristocratic civilians were accustomed to congregate, a gramaphone that played an air with which the Spaniards were especially delighted. They did not know the name of the tune, or of its composer, but they caused it to be ground out on all occasions. When the American flag was raised in the town they heard with disquieting suspicion, the same air played by the regimental band of the Sixth United States Cavalry. They were informed when they asked that it was "The Star Spangled Banner."
